In the Press

"Marriott also draws plenty of comparisons to Janis Joplin as she blends acoustic folk with jazz and electric blues into a uniquely danceable sound. This London, Ontario native sings the blues as if she was born a lot closer to its delta roots."
Terry Key – Currentland

"Jennifer can seduce into relaxation with the words of her songs, then her soft melodic voice can take on a Janice Joplin growl, or a downtown rhythm and blues wail setting the stage alive.." David Evanston – Fort Myers Life Magazine

"With her husky, dusky voice, Jennifer Marriott gives a distinctive soulfulness that is infinitely easy to hear" Elizabeth Wendt-Kellar – Naples Daily News

"Jennifer was a treat to watch with vocals reminiscent of a young Rickie Lee Jones." Brad Harwood – London Blues Society

"..she loves telling a good story in her music, she gives the story energy and the audience feeds it back to her...." Renny Severance – Fort Myers Life Magazine

"Singer, songwriter and guitarist Jennifer Marriott puts a fresh face on folk with torchy vocals and an eclectic mix of musical styles..." The Message - Rutland VT
