

Bill Brill is a NAIVE/PRIMITIVE/FOLK ARTIST from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Bill's subject matter varies from 21st Century Urban scenes, fantasy landscapes, romantic settings, and whimsical scenes designed to pull the art viewer from across the room and in to the painting.

" My pleasure in painting is to leave viewers with a smile, giggle, warm fuzzy feeling, or a reflective moment....if I can keep achieving that, I will never put my paintbrushes down."

Bill's work often contains small details and use of brilliant acrylic colours; and has been displayed at various public art venues including: The Bill W. Dodge Galleries in Carmel, California and Cannon Beach, Oregon; the Arabella Gallery in Astoria, Oregon; the M.A.Doran gallery in Tulsa, OK; The Price Gallery in Tulsa, OK; Tulsa MAYFEST Invitational Gallery; Tulsa Living Arts Gallery; Philbrook Museum Demonstration event; and is part of MAPLERIDGE Art Collaborative shows in Tulsa. Bill's Art has been auctioned at numerous local fund raisers including; Town and Country School, Tulsa Senior Services, Call Rape, the OKLAHOMA AQUARIUM, and TACA 5x5 benefit.
