

MINGO DRIVE

AN INDIE POP ROCK BAND FROM TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Formerly Jasper Wilderness, this group known for their unique blend of blues and alternative rock generated over 1 million all time streams, 17 released songs, and shows all around Tulsa ranging from small rooms to arenas, supporting bands including The Driver Era and Wilderado. Their playlist credits include Spotify's All New Rock, Fresh Finds, Fresh Finds Rock and Apple Music's New In Rock, New In Alternative.

Now reborn as Mingo Drive, the band embarks on a fresh musical journey honing on their distinct sound, seeking a name that reflects their essence: lifelong friends creating music amidst the vibrant backdrop of their beloved city. Infused with gritty basslines and twangy dobro solos, their music pays homage to Tulsa's iconic sound while embracing contemporary pop and alt-rock influences including The Killers and Radiohead.

As they prepare to release their latest singles, Mingo Drive promises to create music for everybody while skillfully exploring a range of human emotions in their lyrics and soundscapes. The songs touch on themes such as regret, conflict, self-discovery, and hope. The first single will release on July 9, 2024 with four more singles to follow monthly into the new year.
